Another DeepWildcat Is Slated In Milam County

Oil operations in Milam County are still in the spotlight, with another deep wild-cat try reported to be staged starting this coming Monday.

D. L. McCrary of Calvert, according to reports, plans a 7,500 foot wildcat at the No. 1 C. M. and Joe S. Gibson, two miles north east of Clarkson and 19 miles north of Cameron. This same test was drilled to 5,900 feet in September of 1952 and then abandoned by G. L. Reasor.

Site of the new deep try is 330 feet from the northwest and southwest lines of a 114.7 acre tract. This is approximately 330 feet from the northerly northwest line and scales 4,800 feet from the south west line of J. J. Whitesides Survey.

Plans to deepen this test, possibly to the Smackover, were discussed at the time the wildcat was abandoned. Last summer, Humble found Smackover production near Mexia, in Limestone County.

During the past month rumors have circulated that Texas Gulf Sulphur Co., on its test east of Cameron, has found saturated sand in the Cotton Valley or Smack over in its Fee wildcat now being drilled. The shows are said to be between 8,500 and 9,800 feet. The well was drilling at 10,791 feet at last report.

It has also been reported that drilling is nearing completion on the C. C. Calton property, with no report on whether or not oil was struck.

Harris Sentenced To 25 Years For Murder Of J. L. Ferrow

The trial of the State of Texas vs. Freddie Lee Harris came to a sudden end Wednesday when the defense rested its case without ever having put the defendant on the stand. Harris was on trail for the murder of J. L. Ferrow, better known as Buddy Washington. Both are negroes. The stabbing happened April 9.

The case was given to the jury Wednesday afternoon after argument by State's attorney Bob Nelson and the court appointed defense attorney Bill Black. After they had deliberated one hour and twenty five minutes the jury came in with a verdict of "guilty" and sentenced Harris to 25 years in the state penitentiary. The state had asked for the death penalty.

Several witnesses were called by the defense attorney, each confirming the fact that Ferrow had been stabbed to death by Harris.

"Brother" a little eight year old, the first witness called by the plaintiffs in the Freddie Lee Harris murder case, held the packed courtroom enthralled with his blow by blow and, allegedly, word for word account of the happenings on the fateful day when his father, J. L. Farrow, was stabbed to death.

J. L. Farrow, Jr., or Brother as he is called, stated that at the time of the stabbing he was living with Freddie Lee and Minnie, along with her other three children and had been for nine months.

He said that they started out from home and their first stop was at the Hudsons garage to get a sticker put on their car. His daddy was there, Brother said, but nothing happened at that time between the two men. Next they went to Freddie Lee's sisters house where they sat around talking. When they got back in the car, Brother continued, Freddie Lee had a dirk which had been lieing on the table when they entered.

When asked if Freddie Lee had said what he wanted with the knife, Brother replied "No, he just said that he would bring it back that night."

Later, in the testimony of Joe Lee Harrison, nephew of Freddie Lee it was brought out that it was this boys knife which had been taken.

Brother, continuing his testmony in a rapid fire manner, said that the next place they went was downtown and Freddie Lee and J. L. Farrow, better known as Buddy Washington, met that night at the Old Chamber's Place, as the place is usually referred to. At the conclusion of a short agrument, Brother related, Freddie said he was going to "shoot daddy right now" and then Freddie got in the car and left. He later saw him loading a gun, later said to be a single barreled shot-gun, in the car.

The next thing emphasized by testimony was the fight between Minnie and Katie, the wife of Buddy Washington who was living with Freddie Lee and the woman who was living with Wshington. Brother stated that the fight started and his father tried to separate them but was stopped by Brother's grandmother, Mrs. Dave Makey.

He said while Mrs. Makey held Buddy in a bent over position Freddie got the knife out of his hip pocket, put his thumb on the end of the handle, and stabbed him.

When asked if he noticed anything unusual about his fathers appearance, Brother stated that he

21-AA Gets "Free Ride" Into Regional Football – Basketball

Coach Leo Jackson was particularly enthusiastic about the bye drawn by the new district 21-AA, making the bi-district football and basketball games unnecessary this year, and automatically jumping the district winners into Regional play.

"It is definitely good news to the the district winners into Regional play.

"It is definitely good news to the Cameron team," Jackson stated, "for this particular year, since the champs won't have to play bi-district, and next year there is going to be a shake-up in all the districts in Texas.

He explained that the reason for the bye was that there has been, in the past, 32 AA districts in Texas, but last year two West Texas Districts consolidated, bringing the number to an uneven 31, which made it necessary for one district to be dropped out of bi-district play. Officials of the TIL met and District 21-AA was drawn to receive the bye, which some deem an advantage and others are against.

Coach Jackson further explained that after the shake-up, if things go as expected, schools with a student body between the range of 400-750 students are taken out of Cameron will be the big dog team in this district.

Members of 21-AA are Belton, Cameron, Taylor, Georgetown, Rosebud, and Rockdale.

Motion For New Trial In Coffield Case Denied

Motion for a new trial in the case of DeWitt Langford vs. H.H. Coffield and W. L. Pickins was heard in the District Courtroom by Judge O. D. Graham Wednesday afternoon.

Langford's attorneys sought the new trial on the alleged grounds of new evidence. They produced a witness to bolster their motion, however, Judge Graham denied their motion for a new trial on the grounds that they had produced no new evidence.

Langford's attorneys gave notice that they intended to appeal the case.

WALTER WILLIAMS of Franklin.

112-Year Granddad Of Local Women To Observe SFD Day

Col Walter Williams, the 112-year-old Texas veteran who fought in the Civil War, grandfather of Mrs. Gene Blake and Mrs. Gus McLane of Cameron, will join with thousands of Central Texans in observing Santa Fe Diamond Day, June 29, in Temple.

The state's last Confederate veteran, once a member of Hood's proud Texas Brigade, will be a guest of honor, along with Santa Fe officials and other dignitaries.

He will be accompanied to Temple by several members of his family. Although confined to a wheel chair, he is quite active for his age. He has expressed a desire to ride in the parade, rather than sit on the sidelines.

200 Boys Registered For Summer Ball Leagues; Managers Needed

Pony League, Senior Boys Little League To Meet Tonight

Coach Leo Jackson reported today that the Summer Recreation Program is progressing even more rapidly than he had thought possible, and that it looks like an exceptionally good year if just a few more volunteers will assist in the baseball program.

To date 200 boys have registered for the four leagues, which consists of the Little League, Pony League, Texas League and the Senior Boys Softball. A breakdown of the boys registered for each of the Leagues is: Little League, 68 boys; Texas League, 49 boys; Pony League 61 boys and Senior Boys, 31 boys.

Jackson added that more boys are needed in the Senior Division and that any boys already out of school but between the ages of 13 and 19 years would be eligible for play if the signed up.

Managers and assistant managers have alrady been assigned to most of the teams, with 10 assistant managers and five managers still needed. Jackson asked that anyone able to assist in the program contact him at telephone number 602 or be at the fields for the initial meetings of the teams.

Managers, assistant managers and their teams already on the roster are: Little League —Team I — John Florida, manager; Wayne Mann, assistant manager; team II — Ed Manning, manager; Edwin Adams, assistant manager; Team III — Pooch Fikes, manager; assistant manager not yet named; Team IV — Allen Dodson, manager; Guy Rivers, assistant manager.

New Police Rules Bring Many Meter Changes

Many changes have been brought about by the adoption of the new Police Report by the City Council, Marshall Terry, local police officer in charge of parking meter operations announced.

One of the most important changes is the increasing purchase of parking permit stickers by the people, according to officials at the City Hall. During the month of April only five stickers were sold and in May, at the decreased price of $4.00 per sticker for the month, the sticker sales jumped to 20 during the short period the new price has been in effect.

Officer Terry advised that the stickers will be issued on a prorated basis, with all stickers running out on the first of every month

Official records show that meter intake during the week ending May 19, when the sticker and red flag enforcement was a little more lax, was $188.39. During the week ending May 26 the meter proceeds were $184.01, only a slight drop in intake although many more stickers were purchased.

Of course, an accurate estimate of the actual increase of funds from the parking meters cannot be shown until the new enforcements can be judged over a period of time. Officer Terry reported that many more people are putting money in the meters than before, and those who receive tickets are paying promptly in order to get the 75 cent discount. All those paying tickets within two hours after one is issued have to pay only 25 cents, while after that period the cost of parking meter violation is $1.00.

Terry stated that the new regulations are making it somewhat easier on him, giving him more time to make more rounds of the business district. Now, under the newly admended ordinance, he cannot seek out automobile owners to caution them that they are parked on a meter with a red flag or to insert coins in the meters for them.

The police committee of the city Council, headed by Milton Schiller, stated, "We are gratified that so many people are buying parking permit stickers, and are cooperating in keeping the meters in the business section with time on them." Schiller added that after June 1 every car found on a red meter will have a ticket put on it immediately.

Another asset of the new regulation change gives officer Terry more time, is the apprehension of speeders in the city limits, with several tickets already issued for non-obeyance of traffic signs or speed limitations.

Schiller, who has Roy Griffith and Clifford Thompson as co-workers on the Police Committee, said the enforcement of street signs and speed laws governing Cameron will be stepped up in the future to insure the safety of pedestrians and other automobile drivers.

Miss Phyllis Moore Becomes Bride Of Cpl. Monroe Mortimer In Washington, D. C.

Miss Phyllis Louise Moore of Washington, D. C., daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Clark Moore of Walton, West Virginia became the bride of Cpl. Monroe Clayton Mortimer, son of Mrs. Helen C. Mortimer and the late G. T. Mortimer of Cameron, Texas.

Rev. John A. Holt officiated at the double-ring ceremony on Saturday, April 2, at 4 p. m. at the Luther Rice Memorial Baptist church, Washington, D. C.

The altar was banked with palms and vases of white flowers. Seven-branched candelabra were placed on either side of the altar.

Given in marriage by Mr. Arthur P. Gill, the bride was attired in a lovely gown of lace over taffeta. Her six-tiered skirt was fastened to a white lace strapless, tight fitting jacket with long pointed sleeves. Her headdress of lace was decorated with tiny pearls fastened to a fingertip veil.

She carried a white Bible marked with a white orchid and showered with white satin streamers and flowers.

Mrs. Joanne Skaggs, matron of honor, was dressed in a pink ballerina-length gown. Miss Joyce Fulks, bridesmaid, was wearing an aqua ballerina-length gown.

Sgt. Richard R. Riffel served the bridegroom as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's apartment at 5002 North Capitol St., N. W. Aides were Mrs. Joanne Skaggs and Miss Betty Fletcher.

When the couple left for a wedding trip through West Virginia, the new Mrs. Mortimer changed to a white linen sheath, trimmed with rhinestones and blue edging, and a blue linen duster. On her shoulder, she placed an orchid corsage.

THIS WEEK IN THE CLINIC

J. E. Boyce, D. C.

To the Boyce Chiropractic Clinic come the children whose parents have been told their child will never walk, talk, or be healthy again because of some cruel condition of disease.

Many so called "hopeless" cases are returned to happy, healthy childhood, by removing the cause of their condition, which is preventing the flow of lifegiving nerve energy to the "crippled" portion of the body cut off from supply.

Because of ignorance some parents try chiropractic too late after nerve, bone or tissue destruction has taken place. How sad for me when these parents say "Why didn't someone tell me about Chiropractic Before."

A girl age 7 was always sick with headaches, nausea, vomiting, swollen tonsils, underweight, no appetite. A relative persuaded the mother to try this clinic. Examinations revealed the cause - X-rayes showed how and where nerve pressure existed - adjustments removed this pressure and in 30 days the mother reported - appetite improved tremendously — gained 6 lbs., no nausea or vomiting. Patient discharged. The grandmother reported the other day that this girl hasn't had an reccurance of her sickness in over 11 months. She still has her tonsils - was this case hopeless? Chiropractically NO. Case 187.

A small boy age 3 had polio for 1 year - unable to walk or crawl, no movement in either leg, losing weight steadily no appetite, and poor elimination. Entered this clinic, was X-rayed, cause located, Adjustments started. In a very short time leg muscles responded, appetite improved, and the boy gained weight. Today this boy is crawling on hands and knees - can stand on both legs with a little support and can walk with his braces. Was this case hopeless? Case 173.

Mrs. Emma Horstmann 86, of Temple, wife of the late Henry Horstmann, formerly of Buckholts was the oldest guest. The youngest was Elimar Horstmann III, 3 months, grandson of Mrs. Estelle Horstmann and the late Constabule E. Horstmann of Buckholts.

Martha Vasicek Exchanges Nuptial Vows With Clem Tomek May 17 In Temple Rites

Miss Martha Vasicek of Temple exchanged nuptial vows with Mr. Clem Tomek, of Cameron in a ceremony read at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Temple. Rev. Bernard Goertz, pastor, preformed the ceremony at 8 a. m. before an altar decorated with pink roses and two floor baskets of stocks.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vasicak of Temple and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tomek, Sr., of Cameron.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown designed with a fitted bodice and long lace sleeves that came to a point at the hands. The bodice was enhanced with a deep lace scalloped yoke. A softly gathered skirt of satin was attached the scalloped waist. Her finger tip illusion was attached to a tiara of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a crystal rosary and a white prayer book topped with a deep yellow throated white orchid, showered with satin streamers.

Miss Margaret Vasicek, of Temple, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and Miss Emma Vasicek, of Temple, also a sister of the bride served as bridesmaid. They wore identically designed taffeta and net dresses in shades of blue and pink. The fitted bodice of taffeta was designed with a round neckline and attached with a full length skirt of net and taffeta They carried white carnation bouquets.

Eugene Tomek of Cameron served his brother as bestman. Frank Vasicek, Jr., of Temple, brother of the bride was the groomsman.

The mother of the bride wore a navy crepe dress with matching accessories. The groom's mother chose a navy orlon dress and wore white and navy accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony close friends and members of the family were invited to a sausage and chicken dinner and supper at Seaton-Star Hall near Temple.

The wedding cake, three-tiered, was iced white and decorated with tiny candied bells and roses. It was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home on Route 1, Cameron where Mr. Tomek is engaged in farming.

Among the out of town visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kincer and Mike of Houston; Mr. and Mrs James Sims of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. James Coody and family of Bryan; Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Leonard, Jr., of Cameron; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Tomek of Killeen; Mrs. Rosie Chernosky and Steve Chernosky of Ben Arnold; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Faichtenger, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Mikula, Sr. and Mrs. Frances Tomek and son, all of Cameron.

Ralph Michalka Discharged April 26

Staff-Sargeant Ralph L. Michalka, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Michalka, of Cameron, received his discharge April 26 after completing four years in the U. S. Air Force.

He is now at home on vacation, visiting his parents and friends here. Ralph was stationed at Loring Air Force Base in Limestone, Maine.

He plans to return to Detroit, Michigan in the near future.

Mrs. Walter Sharp Entertains D.A.R. At Final Meeting

Mrs. Walter Sharp entertained the members of the Daughters of the American Revolution Wednesday afternoon in her home, which was decorated with arrangements of yellow lillies, for their final meeting until fall.

Mrs. T. E. Crump, who was in charge of the program, gave the challenge "Women of the '60's".

Mrs. Grady Stidham then gave a paper on Confederate Mothers.

During the business session the yearbook committee was selected with Mrs. Ed Gunn elected chairman, with co-workers Mrs. Frank Lesovsky, Mrs. Crump and Mrs. R. L. Batte, Sr.

Following the meeting strawberry ice cream and cookies were served by the hostess.

Layfields' Honored With House-Warming

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Layfield were honored with a surprise house warming by the classroom teachers and administration of the Cameron Independent School system Wednesday evening.

The 40 attending guests, who brought baskets of cookies and Cokes presented the Layfields with a redwood table and benches for their back lawn.

The guests, seated in the living room of the Layfield's new home at 1119 North Cleveland in the Green Addition, held a sing-song as entertainment with Mr. Layfield at the piano.

Recent Continental Congress Discussed At D.A.R. Meeting

The May meeting of Sarah Mc Calla Chapter, D. A. R. was held recently with Mrs. Bertha Brewer as hostess and Mrs. B. J. Baskin presiding. Following the Ritual and the salute to the flag, the minutes of the April meeting were read and approved.

The time for placing the D.A.R. marker on the grave of Mrs. E. Phillips, Rockdale, was set for 10:30 a. m., May 18.

It was noted that Mrs. J. F. McCrory entered an attractive arrangement of flowers for the Chapter in the recent Delphian Flower Show and was awarded a red ribbon.

Mrs. W. G. Gillis had the program and gave the Chapter an interesting account of the recent Continental Congress in Washington, D. C.

Special guests for the afternoon were the two Good Citizenship Award recipients, Misses Marie Frances Chupick in the HE Cottage at recent meeting.

Nancy Kubish Has Slumber Party

Nancy Kubish was hostess to a group of girls at a slumber party with a scant amount of slumbering, Thursday night.

Early in the evening the seven attending girls were served refreshments of fruit punch and caramel cake.

At 3 a. m. the slightly veary-eyed girls fried chicken and prepared sandwiches for their outing the next day.

Throughout the night they took pictures of the happenings, including their breakfast preparations at 5 a. m.

After breadkfast they left on a trip to Belton for the day.

"Book of Books" Subject of Talk At Kiwanis Club

Reverend James Lefanne, pastor of the Avenue G Church of Christ in Temple was guest speaker at the Kiwanis Club meeting Thursday noon in the Milam Coffee Shop.

His talk, entitled "Book of Books", broached the predictions made in the books of Genesis, Moses, David and Paul which described theories not discovered until recent times.

He also pointed out that all service clubs benefit their community in many ways, working in direct conjunction with the churches.

Rev. Lafanne was introduced by Pat Sanders, Chairman of Support of Churches committee, program chairman for the day, assisted by his committeemen Coleman Duncum and Reverend H. M. Bowley.

During the business session final plans were made for Jerry Schiller, chairman of the Inter-Club committee to take a program from the local club to present to the newly organized Brenham Kiwanis on July 13.

Guests at the meeting were Frank Wilson and Harold Riley of Waco and Mr. Sherrill of Temple.

Ed Manning, chairman of the Finance Committee, will be program chairman at the next regular Kiwanis meeting.

sted Tells of Importance Of cal Civil Defense Program

ph Husted, State Relations esentative of the American nal Red Cross, at the Milam ty Farm Bureau meeting on dy night, emphasized the im- ance of a local Civil Defense anization to render aid in a munity disaster.

veryone interested in organiz such a force now, before a di- or such as a tornado, fire, epi ic, or any such tragedy strikes, been advised to volunteer for vice with the Civil Defense, the und Observer Corps, and with l Cross disaster committees h Sheriff Carl Black, local dis- ct chairman or Jack Prescott, airman of the Red Cross.

One of the disasters most pre- lent in Milam County is the tor- do, which has struck vicinities se to Cameron a number of nes.

Some of the facts concerning the rnado, brought out by Husted are

—can occur anywhere in the nited States, at any time, but appen most frequently in the mid- estern, southern, and central tates from March through Septem- ber, the national average being 153 a year;

— usually appear as a funnel-shaped cloud, spinning rapidly, and extending toward the earth from the base of a thunder-cloud;

—move usually from southwest to northeast at a travel speed of from 25 to 40 miles an hour, and a wind speed up to 500 miles an hour within the tornado;

—develop from topsy - turvy, greenish - black thunderstorm clouds on hot, sticky days with southerly winds blowing;

—leave a path of destruction usually 15-40 miles long and 300 to 400 yards wide, but have been known to move forward 300 miles and cut swaths over a mile in width;

—wreak destruction because of violent winds which uproot trees, destroy building and create serious hazards from objects blown through the air and because of air pressure differences which can lift automobiles and cause buildings to collapse.

Rules to follow in case of a tornado, outlined by Husted are:

1. There is no universal protection against tornadoes except caves or underground excavations. When time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave, or underground excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure. It should be kept fit for use, free from water, gas, or debris; and preferably equipped with pick and shovel.

2. If there is no time to escape,

1. Move at right angles to the tornado-s path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.

2. If there is notimetoescape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.

3. If in a city or town:

1. Seek inside shelter, preferably in a steel reinforced building. Stay AWAY FROM INDWOWS!

2. In homes: The southwest corner of the lowest floor or in the basement offers greatest safety. People living in brick or stone houses should seek other shelter, preferably in a storm cellar or the basement of a frame house. If time permits, electricity and fuel lines should be shut off. Windows on the north and east sides of the house may also be opened to help reduce damage to the building.

3. Standing against the inside wall on a lower floor of an office building offers some protection.

4. If in schools:

1. In city areas: Especially if school building is of good steel reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on a lower floor. AVOID AUDITORIUMS AND GYMNASIUMS!

2. In rural districts — remove children and teachers to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

5. If in factories and industrial plants:

On receiving a tornado warning, a lookout should be posted to keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach. Advance preparation should be made for shutting off electrical circuits and fuel lines if the tornado approaches the plant. Workers should be moved to sections of the plant offering the greatest protection.

6. Keep calm! It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of a tornado. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight. Tornadoes cover such a small zone, as a rule, that warned area are directly affected. relatively only a few places in a You should know about tornadoes though, "just in case."

7. Keep tuned to your radio station for latest tornado advisory information. Do not call the Weather Bureau, except to report a tornado, as your individual request may tie up telephone lines urgently sands in the critical area.

Young Men Between Ages of 25 – 40 Needed By Red Cross

Young men between the ages of 25 and 40 are needed as assistant field directors at military installations, it was announced today by Miss Beth Bruce, Director of Personnel, Red Cross Midwestern Area Office.

Red Cross assistant field directors serve as a link between the servicemen and women and their families, and provide counseling, emergency communication, and assistance in helping solve personnel and family problems related to the military service for the personell they serve, Miss Bruce said.

Applicants for the positions should have a college degree in social work, social studies, or related fields, and must be willing to accept assignment wherever needed in the world. The starting salary for new applicants will be determined according to background and experinece. New employees normally spend one year in military installations somewhere in the Midwestern Area before becoming eligible for overseas assignment.

Miss Bruce said that a normal overseas tour is for two years. Dependents may join employees overseas, whenever housing is available, and transportation and maintenance are provided for the family while enroute.

For all assistant field directors assigned overseas, the Red Cross pays maintenance and makes travel arrangements without cost to the employee.

Men interested in receiving further information on these openings should write to the Director of Personnel Service, Midwestern Area Office, American National Red Cross, 4050 Lindell Blvd., St. Louis 8, Mo., or contact their nearest Red Cross chapter.

New York Joins The Cattlemen's Association

Report from the American National Cattlemen's Association is that New York has joined up, reporting 31,000 cattle. This seems small to folks in the cow country, but in 1940 only 7,000 beef cattle were reported in New York.

This same increase in cattle numbers can be noted in most states to a more or less degree. Proving again that farmers are finding livestock their very best cash crop — salable any day, weather resistant, and in most cases good insurance against crop failure.

Recent guests in the home of Judge and Mrs. B. G. Rice were Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Rice of Houston, and Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Jones and two sons, Victor and Layden of Wichita, Kansas. While here they also visited in the home of Mrs. W. A. Sproull.

Wheat Vote Set For June 25

Texas wheat farmers will join with the nation's growers June 25 to decide in a national referendum whether marketing quotas will continue in effect for their 1956 crop. The State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee urges Texas producers to participate in the vote.

"Under the present surplus situation, we are required to proclaim marketing quotas," Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson said.

"We will have almost as much wheat in the total supply after harvest this year as we had a year ago. In other words, we will have enough wheat to take care of all our domestic and export needs for two full years."

Benson has said that wheat is one of the major problems facing the Department of Agriculture this year.

Any producer in commercial areas who will plant more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest as grain in '56 is eligible to vote in the referendum. Two-thirds of the vote must favor marketing quotas before they can be put into effect.

Local voting places for the June 25 balloting will be announced for each county.

The available supply of wheat for the 1955-56 marketing year is 66 percent above the considered "normal supply." The Secretary must call for marketing quotas when the normal supply exceeds 20 percent.

In the referendum last summer, 73.3 percent of the farmers voting approved the quotas.

1956 Wheat Program Quota Proclaimed

The Secretary of Agriculture on May 13 announced the following action in connection with the 1956 Wheat Program:

1. Proclaimed a national wheat marketing quota for the 1956 wheat crop, as required by law.

2. Announced a national wheat acreage allotment of 55 million acres for 1956 — the level specified by law under present conditional of excessive supply, and the same allotment which was in effect for 1955.

3. Set Saturday, June 25, as the date for the national referendum among wheat growers on whether or not quotas will be in effect for the 1956 crop.

4. Announced that, based on latest available supply information, a national average support price for 1956 production would be determined and announced before the wheat referendum.

does the milk you drink measure up to Superior Dairies' rigid standard of quality?

A majority of housewives in Central Texas demand Superior Dairies' milk because they KNOW Superior Dairies' milk is finer quality, is fresher and tastes better.

The reason most folks in Central Texas prefer Superior Dairies' milk is because day-after-day . . . . . month-after-month . . . year-after-year . . . the quality and taste of Superior Dairies' milk never varies; each bottle and carton is of the same top quality as the next.

The preference for Superior Dairies' milk is no accident. In Texas' finest dairy plant . . . better quality milk starts right in the spotless receiving room; then rigid laboratory tests (in Superior Dairies' own laboratories) control this quality right to your own table.

There's good reason why more families in Central Texas demand Superior Dairies' milk . . . and that reason is that through the years folks have tried many brands of milk . . . and by trying them all . . . by comparing quality-for-quality . . . freshness-for-freshness . . . taste-for-taste . . . they've proven to themselves conclusively that NO MILK IN CENTRAL TEXAS matches Superior Dairies' milk for wholesome refreshment . . . for consistency of good taste . . . for freshness.

Superior Dairies invites you to TRY THEM ALL . . . and compare the quality yourself. We honestly believe that you, too, will join the thousands who KNOW that Superior Dairies' milk is more popular in Central Texas . . . because it's a BETTER TASTING, FRESHER, FINER QUALITY milk.

HORSTMANN BROTHERS

Soil Conservation District News

Supervisors: Edwin Fischer, A. W. Butts, Paul C. Graves, Clarence L. Stock and Hal Hartrick.

A. H. Hightower has developed a complete soil and water conservation plan for his 100 acre farm in the Walker's Creek community

When Mr. Hightower bought this farm, he requested aid from the Central Texas Soil Conservation District in making a complete conservation plan. The 41 Acres of tillable land is divided into five fields. The rows have always been plowed up and down the hill and all the fields were badly eroded. The organic matter content of the soil was low and the soil has a plow pan that water could not penetrate. The pastures were overgrazed and most of the native grasses were gone. The farm did not have adequate livestock water.

Mr. Hightower, with the aid of the technicians of the Soil Conservation Service, took an inventory of the condition of the farm and they discussed ways to improve these conditions.

Mr. Hightower constructed a pond that would furnish a year-long supply of livestock water. He cut the stocking rate of the pasture to about one third of what it had previously been. Under this stocking rate, the native grasses should show an increase in a couple of years.

For the cultivated fields, Mr. Hightower planned a complete terrace system. The terraces will empty onto native grass in the pasture. To eliminate the poor soil structure, an intensified cover crop program will be used. Most of the fields will be seeded to hubam and oats each winter and used for grazing. With this combination of terraces, legumes and close-growing crops, Mr. High tower will control erosion and improve soil structure at the same time.

Mr. Hightower realizes that the farm is now in poor condition, but he knows how to correct these conditions.

Grasshopper Infestations Becoming Serious

Grasshoppers are hatching fast in some Texas areas and farmers are advised to take action before they migrate to cotton and other field crops. The pests feed on succulent green foliage.

The main hatches of differential or yellow - legged grasshoppers should be complete as far north as Kaufman county this week, Dr. T. A. Fuller, extension entomologists, reports.

Fuller points out that insecticides are most effective if applied just after a hatch, while the hoppers are still small. He suggests spraying field margins, roadsides and ditch banks with chlordane, dieldrin or toxaphene.

If control measures are withheld until the pests migrate into nearby crops, control measures are more costly and usually not as effective.

"Curly Top" In Tomatoes

Curly Top, which is a virus disease spread by leaf hoppers is not considered of economic importance in Milam County.

However, the disease is present and the following letter from A & M College was received last week by J. D. Moore, Milam County Agricultural Agent.

"Dear Mr. Moore:

I have your letter and specimen of tomato plant that you stated was taken from a garden in Cameron. Your diagnosis of the disease as curly top was certainly correct. This plant was showing very definitely and unmistakable symptoms of curly top disease. I checked it with several other members of the department. We were unable to find any nematodes, fusarium wilt or any other trouble present on the plant.

Curly top, as you know, is a virus disease that within the past few years has become very prevalent in areas of the state where it had never occurred before. As is true with almost every virus disease connected with plants, there is no chemical control for this trouble. The only control measures are to try to control the leaf hoppers that spread the disease from the affected plants to clean plants. I would suggest an immediate dusting program using a 5 per cent DDT dust for the control of the leaf hopper where tomatoes are not too near the harvesting period. If the tomatoes are approaching very nearly the harvesting period, I would suggest the use of methoxychlor is used, I would suggest a thorough application of this material every 5 to 7 days. The question is not only to control the leaf hoppers but to kill them quickly before they have had ample opportunity to spread the disease."

In The House Of Representatives

May 16-20. Two more insurance reform bills were finally approved by the Legislature. One of these bills directs the Insurance Commissioners to supervise the sale of insurance stocks and to see that stock issued isf air, just andequitable. The other bill would speed up liquidation procedures when an insurance company fails.

A motion was made and failed to move from the Appropriation Committee to the Penitentiary Committee a bill directing the State Auditor to make a complete examination of all books and records of the General Land Office. Besides Veteran Lands, the Land Office handles all State mineral leases and tideland leases.

Senator Kilmer Corbin of Lubbock set a new record on filibustering when he talked against the constitutional amendment providing for a statewide ad valorem tax on water conservation. This is the third Senator that has broken the national record in filibustering this session.

A Senate bill passed the House providing for more liberal retirement benefits for teachers subject to the cnsititutional amendment that will be voted on at the next general election.

A Senate bill to permit issuance of more bonds for school buildings and improvements survived a series of attacks on the floor fo the House but it failed to reach a dibills making permanent certain District Courts that were created on a temporary basis by past Legislatures.

The Senate State Affairs Committee is still working on the House passed tax bill. The Senate is likely to consider the tax bill at an early date.

The Governor signed into law a House bill making it unlawful to bring intoxicating beverages into any public school stadium or field.

Six semester hours of American History will be required for graduation from a state college by the terms of a Senate bill that passed the House. Three hours of Texas History could be substituted for three of the six semester hours

Seasonal Market News Coverage On Crops Annouuced

Market news coverage of East Texas tomato and North Texas onion deals will start around June 1, the Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA, has announced.

Daily reports during the marketing season will be issued from the Dallas fruit and vegetable division office. They will contain f. o. b. shipping point information and wholesale prices at major terminal markets throughout the country.

When the watermelon marketing season begins later in the season, the daily bulletins also will cover watermelon shipments by states, f. o. b. shipping point information from areas outside of Texas, major terminal market prices, and truck and track holdings at 16 cities.

Producers and other interested persons may obtain these daily bulletins free of charge from the Fruit and Vegetable Market News Office, P. O. Box 6306, Dallas, Texas.

Cotton Measuring Program Underway

A. S. C. officials announced today that 214 farms in Milam County have been measured in the Cotton Measuring Program which is now underway.

Seven men are busy tabulating the acreage being farmed on the 1,570 cotton farms in the county, and it has been reported that, to date, every farm is checking out according to its history.

Soil Moisture Good In West Milam Co.

Soil moisture is sufficient in western half of county. This section received 4 to 5 inches of rain during May. This includes the Thorndale, San Gabriel, Val Verde, Buckholts and Yarrellton communities.

The eastern half of the county received only 2 inches of rain during May.

Crop conditions are good generally. Corn and grain sorghums are leading in growth. Cotton is improving rapidly and is putting on squares after 2 or 3 poisonings to get rid of the thrips.

Tomatoes generally are not good. The plants failed to set the early fruit due to changing weather conditions. First green tomatoes should start June 1 to 10 be a few pinks by then.

Watermelons and canteloupes are making excellent growth but are late. Canteloupes should start moving by June 15 to 20.

Livestock conditions are very good. Grasshoppers are showing up in pastures and around truck crop fields. Should be controlled now.

Uranium Is Where You Find It, Former Gause Man Relates

And do you know who started the great uranium rush to the Colorado Plateau?

It wasn't, as you may have heard, the lone Indian who supposedly found some uranium along the Santa Fe right of way in 1951 (without a Geiger counter yet).

Eugene C. Weafer of Bryan, formerly of Gause, executive director of the National Milk Bowl, tells "the true Story". — so:

"In the winter of 1948, I often played dominoes with a prospector in his shack at the Four Corners Area of northern Arizona. The prospector told me several times it would be useless to spend my time looking for uranium, because it did not exist in the Colorado Plateau in profitable quantities.

"I left the region in 1949. Of course, I have only one connection with the strike: a nationally syndicated story of my work teaching the Navajos there, and of my family's experiences, said, "The Weafer children play with uranium they find in their own back 'yard' ".

"The great uranium rush began thereafter. Amateur prospectors, who had the word that only low-grade ore existed there, had faith. That faith proved that uranium is where you find it."

Soldiers break their step when crossing a bridge because the swing of their bodies and the impact of their feet in rhythm would cause the bridge to swing and eventually to break.

Draft Boards To Send Out Call For Physicals

State draft headquarters Tuesday was preparing to send out a call to local boards for physical examinations for the first time in about six months.

The decision to have approximamined during July was made at state Selective Service headquarters Monday, Lt. Col. Norris S. Schwartz, deputy state director, said.

The calls for the men to undergo the combined physical-mental exately 2,000 men over the state exacal boards sometime during the first week in June. Colonel Schwartz said.

The decision to have the men AA Cameron will be the big dog team in this district.

tely 2,000 men over the state exaexamined followed receipt of the Texas induction call for July from national Selective Service headquarters. This call for 550 men, compares with a quota of 549 for June and 544 for May. Local board quotas for July induction also will bemailed the first week in June.

The last physical - mental examinations for men registered with Texas draft boards was in January. Only special cases have been examined since that time, Colonel Schwartz said, usually less than 100 men a month.

The July quota of 550 men for induction into the Army is the Texas share of a national quota of 10,000 men for the Army.

With the exception of volunteers, the July induction call will be filled only with men who on July 1 are at least 21 years of age, the deputy state director of Selective Service said.

State's Road Needs Set At $3.6 Billion

A good rads program similar to the one proposed by the Presidents advisory committee on highways to solve America's traffic muddle would mean the expenditure of $3,675,390,000 on Texas' roads during the 10-year span of the program.

A Bureau of Public Roads breakdown of traffic needs pointed out that $872 million should be spent during the next 10 years on intermary roads, $464 million on secondary roads and some $1,683,000,000 on non-federal-aid roads and street The federal share would be $1,298,-000,000.

"The worst traffic problems are on main highways and in cities, but some indication of the state's needs can be shown from the fact that there are still more than 107,-000 miles of unsurfaced roads in the state," said John A. Jor\n, Jr., vice president for this area of Universal C. I. T. Credit Corporation, one of the largest automobile financing firms. C. I. T. has been a leading advocate of stepped-up highway program for many years.

"The nation's roads are overcrowded today with some 160 million persons traveling 557 billion miles a year in motor vehicles," he said. "By 1965, they will be traveling 814 billion miles a year. Obviously, we must find a way to speed up our federal, state and local road building programs."

Billy Rex Jones, the son of Mrs. Kathy Johnson of Cameron, is leaving by plane Saturday from Ft. Worth to spend the summer with his father, Bob Jones in Los Angeles, California.

Texas 4-H Club Roundup Nears

Four-H Club members from throughout Texas will converge on College Station June 8-10 for their annual 4-H Roundup. Some 2,000 delegates and adult leaders are expected to attend.

Delegates to the 1955 meeting will have a choice of 17 short courses in various subject-matter fields and will be further acquainted with the facilities of A. & M College, Floyd Lynch, state 4-H leader, announced.

State winners also will be determined in 18 judging and team demonstration contests, ranging from field crops to dress making.

Delegates to Roundup are chosen on the basis of their accomplishments and leadership in 4-H work. Two boys and two girls from each county may attend, an adult leader — either a local leader or extension agent accompanying each group.

The popular "Chuckwagon" supper and Share The Fun Festival are again among attractions which will keynote the three-day meeting.

All 4-H activities, including the Roundup, are under the supervision of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

noticed his clothes were bloody.

The defense attorney, when questioning Brother, brought out the facts that Freddie Lee had been taking care of Minnie and her family of four children for the past nine months, providing all their food, clothing and shelter. It was also pointed out that Freddie was good to Brother and the rest, buying Brother a pair of $25 cowboy boots when his mother said he couldn't have them.

Next witness called to the stand by the plaintiffs was Joe Lee Harrison, the son of Freddie Lee's sister Irene Harrison, who confirmed the fact that the knife was his.

In the next witness's statement, that of Clarence Taylor, it was told how Dave Makey's wife told Freddie Lee to "Whoup or kill" Buddy, and Freddie's reply that he would kill him.

Clarence stated that the next time he saw them was at the fight when Dave Makey warned those trying to separate the girls to "turn my girl loose, I know she'll fight".

He added that Buddy came up and told Freddie "Let's stop our wives from fighting'. and Freddie retorted, no, that it was none of their business.

Clarence continued that Freddie then hit Buddy and knocked him around, hit him again and knocked him down between two cars and then stabbed him twice with the knife, adding that he did not see the nife.

Next witness was Novella Evans, who used to work on Saturdays at Malones or the old Chambers place. She said she saw the fight ing, saw Buddy stabbed and immediately afterward saw the knife still in Freddie's hand, when he got in the car and left.

Willie Lee Johnson, the next witness, was one of the men who tried to stop the women from gihting and got a knock on the head from his efforts. He said he saw Freddie throw something after the stabbing, and later by request of the Sheriff, went back and found the knife lieing in a ditch where the thrown object would have been

Mary Joe Lewis, the next witness for the day, said after the stabbing she walked behind Buddy to the corner and then caught up with him, catching him by the left arm, and tried to get him to go to with him, catching him by the left arm, and tried to get him to go to a doctor, but he said no. he was too badly hurt.

Rosezelle Whitehead, the final witness, said she saw the stabbing, when Buddy was leaning over, with his hands on the radiator of a parked car.

Members of the jury were Arthur Smith, Charlie Duncan, Frank J. Karnowski, M. D. Swanzey, Fred Jackson, J. W. Jenkins, Joe Hickman, ohn Batte, V. J. Cole, Ray Thompson, Fred Carroll, oe B. Richardson.

GRANDDAD —
ing veterans of the War Between the States. He was a forage master in Company C Fifth Regiment of Hood's Brigade. The troop was commanded by Maj. Gen John Bell Hood, for whom Fort Hood was named.

Santa Fe Diamond Day commemorates the 75th anniversary of the coming of the Santa Fe Railroad to Central Texas. The anniversary coincides with Temple's birthday, the annual meeting of the Central Texas Pioneers Club and the annual horse show sponsored by the Longhorn Riding Club.

An old steam locomotive —No. 3423, a Pacific type 4-6-2, will be deeded to the City of Temple by the Santa Fe, and the old engine will be permanently installed on the Gober house lawn, Temple's teenage municipal facility.

An antique diamond smoke stack locomotive, one of the first to travel the Santa Fe route, will be shown to the public during the celebration. The engine, named Cyrus P. Holliday, will be accompanied by several coaches of the same era.

Other features include the naming of Miss Central Texas, who will be eligible to compete in the Miss Texas pageant in Tyler in July, an old fiddler's contest and a late afternoon parade.

The beauty contest is open to any girl in Central Texas who is single and over the age of 16. There is no entry fee. Entry blanks are available from the Temple Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Fort Hood officials will present Col. Williams with one of the original flags carried over 90 years ago by Hood's Texas Brigade in the Civil War. This colorful ceremony will take place immediately after the parade.

One of the features of the celebration will be a barbeque at noon in the Santa Fe park in Temple.

Older children will be used as helpers during the school.

Rev. Solomon explained that the Pioneers, or Intermediate Department will meet every Monday night at 7 p. m. instead of during the morning.

Registration for the school will be held Sunday morning at Sunday School and at the beginning of the classes on Monday.

New Volunteers, Sports, Added To S. R. P.

Coach Leo Jackson reported "a fine response'. to the organizational meetings of the ball clubs in the Summer Recreaion Program last week.

Final details between managers and teams were worked out with practce plans made.

Several new managers and assistant managers signed the roster during those meetings. Newest on the list are Pete Miller, assistant manager, with Pooch Fikes as manager of Little League Team III. The Texas League, which lacked many managers and assistants He urged anyone willing to help to contact him at the earliest opportunity.

Jackson added that approval for golf instruction at the local Country Club has been given and lessons will be given during the morning periods. Mrs. Charlie Burke will give instruction to the girls with the boys instructor yet to be named.

Another facet of the S. R. P. for Cameron youths will be Bowling sessions at the local alleys. Jackson said that the Knights of Columbus had offered the use of the alleys for a minimum charge, just enough to take care of their expenses.

Registration for the individual sports will be on or after June 13, with the date and time to be announced.

now has almost a full agenda. Bob Nelson is the mnager of Team I with Bill Wallace as assistant; Niley Smith, Jr., is the manager of Team II; Reverend John Solomon, manager of Team III and William Voglesang, manager of Team IV with Navy Chief Johnson as assistant.

New managers for the Senior Boys softball teams are Jimmy Asher, Team III manager and Le Roy Thompson, Team IV.

Official score-keeper for the Little League during the summer will be John A. Smith, Jr.

Coach Jackson reported that now only seven more men are needed to complete the needs for volunteer help in the program, two scorekeepers, one for the Senior Boys and one for the Texas League, and five assistant managers

Ideal Hatchery Rates First In Egg Laying Test Reports

Ideal Hatchery has marked up another first on its lists of winnings. In the Oklahoma Egg laying Test reports for March and April it is shown that the Ideal White Leghorn hens are making more profit over feed costs than any of the other 49 entries in the contest.

The feed cost per dozen eggs in March was only $0.1541 and the Hen Margin over feed cost was $0.3432. For April it was $0.1788 cost per dozen eggs and $0.3521 hn margin over feed cost, which proves that the hens are making a profit of more than one cent per hen each day.

Leo Fuchs, owner of Ideal Hatchery, stated that the hens were matured at his local hatchery according to the Purina Growing Chow and grain method with oats primarily used as grain.

You've Got To Be Careful What You Brand Commie

Tripartisan Plank

A SURPRISING thing happened during the House debate on the Democratic 90 percent farm price support bill. The Communist platform somehow got mixed up with the platform of the Republican Party.

It all began when Nebraska's Rep. Robert D. Harrison (R) quoted from the Communist platform. He charged that the Democrats, like the Communists, favored rigid price supports at full parity.

A few minutes later Rep. . R. Poage (D-Tex.) got the floor and read the following passage:

"We favor a farm program aimed at full parity prices on all far products in the market place.'.

Rep. Harold D. Cooley (D. N.C.) interrupted Poage's speech to ask: "Is that the Communist platform?'

"Oh no; no, no," replied Poage. "That is the Republican platform, the platform of the last Republican Convention .... It is almost word for word the same as the Communist platform which the gentleman quoted."

Turing to Harrison, Poage said: "And .... you come before this House and try to insinuate that those of us who want to do what your platform says we should do are in league with the Communits!

Lions Zone Meeting Held In Cameron

Seven Lions Clubs from this zone met in Cameron Thursday night to discuss the duties of the presidents and secretaries for the benefit of incoming officers.

Dr. George Bowman, incoming president of the local club, reported that all of the out-going officers and newly elected presidents and secretaries pooled their ideas to formulate plans for better organizations each year.

The dinner meeting was held at the Country Club with Jack Dempsey, Deputy District Governor, the Zone president, presiding.

Representatives from the Temple, Killeen, Belton, Rosebud, Holland and Bartlett clubs attended.

Incoming officers of the local Lions are Dr. Bowman, president and Conn Sutter, secretary; with Lee Marak as out-going president and Jack Slaughter, secretary.

Installation of the new officers will be made at a ladies night banquet and social June 28.

New Wichita Falls Park Featured On Humble TV Review

Without county, state or federal aid, the citizens of Wichita Falls are making the banks of the Wichita River into an attractive park. This park will extend for two miles and will have grassed and shaded picnic areas.

How this work is being done will be featured next week on The Humble Company's TV program, Texas in Review.

Othere features on the program include films of the Caprock Peace Officers Association meeting at Spur.

Sunday (June 5) Texas in Review can be seen on KPRC-TV, Houston, 10:00 p. m.

Monday (June 6) the program appears on KRLD-TV, Dallas, at 6:30 p. m.; WOAI-TV, San Antonio, 6:30 p. m.

It's Performance That Counts!

CAPTAIN ROGER DON RAE uses Flite-Fuel in his car

"I fly one of the new Super-G Constellations for Trans World Airlines. Of course, I am familiar with Phillips 66 Aviation Gasoline because TWA uses it regularly. It's the Avgas with added Di-isopropyl.

"Now Phillips is putting Di-isopropyl in its automobile gasoline, too. New Phillips 66 FLITE-FUEL is the only automobile gasoline with added Di-isopropyl. I use FLITE-FUEL regularly in my own car, and I always get wonderful performance."
